

2025 EMERGENCY SERVICES COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of the Duryea Emergency Services Committee was held at 315 Main Street, Duryea on February 23, 2025, at 2 pm regarding a discussion on part-time paid firefighters in the borough. This public meeting was advertised in the Times Leader. In attendance were members of the committee and the EMA representative, Keith Moss.

Notes from the meeting:

- The fire departments provided the job description in writing, which was forwarded to the solicitor for review.
- The fire departments are requesting a decision and resolution in order to have things moving by mid-April.
- A list of prospective candidates and the app for scheduling was requested from the fire department.
- Tentative meeting was requested by the fire department on March 10th.
- The fire departments are not open to any partnership with other towns/boroughs at this time.
